

Intercultural encounters and cross-cultural collaboration

Workshop – May 29th, 5-9pm

May 29th, 5-9pm
Spinderihallerne
Spinderigade 11
7100 Vejle

Purpose

To enable internationals and their Danish colleagues to work more effectively by understanding and responding to the impact of culture and cultural difference. To introduce the ideas of Cultural Intelligence and Cultural Agility as key business competences. To work together to co-create positive responses to cultural encounters that enhance collaboration rather than undermining it.

Outcome of workshop; Participants will

- Be able to describe the signs, processes and impacts of „culture shock“ and cultural dissonance.
- To identify the specific ways in which culture shock impacts on the experience of being an international in Denmark and a Dane working with internationals.

- To identify the risk and protective factors in engaging with a cross-cultural labour market.
- To understand and use the core concepts of Cultural Intelligence, (CQ) and Cultural Agility.
- To devise an action plan for their own CQ and Cultural Agility development.

To participate

Send an email to Newcomer Service Louise Nielsen at bosaetningsguide@vejle.dk

Requirement for participation; sign up together with a Danish colleague – limited participation.