

October 30th
17-21 (5-9pm)
Spinderihallerne
Spinderigade 11
7100 Vejle

EXPLORING DANISH BUSINESS CULTURE

This workshop will provide you with a deeper understanding of some of the key features of Danish Business culture.

We will introduce you to different aspects of the Danish workplace such as the notion of trust and equality in the workplace. The workshop will also explore the meaning of hierarchy and rank, performance, dress code, collaboration and teamwork, work life balance etc.

We will broaden the repertoire of responses available to you in your encounter with Danish Business culture and enable you to thrive and create value for both yourself and the organization.

The workshop will focus on topics such as:

- Introducing key features of Danish Business culture.

- Global versus local company culture in Denmark.
- Egalitarianism and the impact on management behavior, rank, communication and performance.
- Rituals and social life at the workplace.
- Identifying the "hot-spots" in your personal cultural encounters in the world of work in Denmark.
- Strategies for getting a job and building a career in Denmark.

Sign up by sending a mail to Newcomer Service,
Louise Nielsen
bosaetningsguide@vejle.dk

Participation is free of charge, incl. a light meal.

About the consultant:

Lone Aagaard, founder and owner of KOMMITMENT International ApS since 2007. MA in Danish Culture and Social Anthropology.

Along with running workshops and training about Business collaboration and organizational change in both international Corporations and Danish companies, she is facilitating workshops for expats and spouses about Culture Shock, Danish culture and Business culture and supporting International Startups.