

Tuesday november 19th
(7.00pm-9.00pm)

Vejle Bibliotek (Library)
Willy Sørensens Plads 1
7100 Vejle

THE SCHOOL AND YOU

Global children's educational options in Denmark

Thomas Mulhern, Managing Director of Globally Local and former International Department Head of Institut Sankt Joseph, will help you stay informed on current state of international education in Denmark.

This will be an exploration of the current options, pedagogical approaches, linguistic methods and the practical consequences of new legislation.

In addition, Thomas will explore third culture kids from a psychological and educational perspective and the psychological and cultural nuances that are vital in terms of mapping out the best course of action for you and your family as you move forward through the educational system here in Denmark.

There will be coffee, tea, water and cake at the workshop.

Sign up to participate with Newcomer Service at bosaetningsguide@vejle.dk

If you choose to sign up, participation is mandatory.

About the speaker:

Thomas Mulhern is the CEO of Globally Local, a consultancy company that works within the educational, private and public sectors in Denmark and abroad. Thomas is himself an Expat who grew up and studied in the United States did his graduate studies in Leuven, Belgium and has been based in Copenhagen, Denmark since 2011. He is married to a Dane and is a father to a Danish-American. Before running Globally Local, Thomas was the International Department Head at Institut Sankt Joseph in Copenhagen where he created the first fully Danish/English bilingual primary and secondary school program in Denmark.